BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful roma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volumes after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Phila.

Coshocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Huckinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

A CHOICE POEM.

We copy from Frank Leslie's Illustrated, the following charming poem by an occasional correspondent, Miss Louise E. Vickroy, of Johnstown, Pa. It is one of those dew drops of beauty, which the world ought not to allow to sparkle and be exhaled forever. We regret that we can give it no more fitting setting, than in the ephemerial columns of a newspaper:—

BY LOUISE E. VICKROY.

In a dimly lighted chamber,
Day by day, an artist wrought,
While his gentle wife, beside him,
Fair as some immortal thought,
Was the model for a picture,
Which he dreamed would place his name
High among the shining planets,
In the starry heaven of fame.

Never weary grew the artist,
Though the summer-time was bright,
And there came into his chamber,
Nothing of its bloom and light;
Only gazed he on the beauty
Of her faultless face, and then,
Patiently, along the canvass
Bade its splendor glow again.

And when she, at last grown weary,
Longing for the sunlight's smile,
Fondly clasped his neck and whispered,
Whispered low, and sighed the while,
"Love, rememberest though the even
When we sat the spring beside,
In the valley of the Tyrol,
Ere I came to be thy bride?

"When thou saidst about my singing,
I had caught the wild-bird's tone,
And the rivulet's low laughter
Was the echo of my own.
Then compared my forehead's whiteness
To the mountain's crown of snow,
Said my cheek was like the wild rose
Blooming in the vale below?

"Fairer, e'en than thine, the pictures
Summoned, by my fancy's power,
Of the peasant youths and maidens
Lingering there this sunset hour;
And I fain would see my brothers
On the hill-side tend their sheep,
And my mother by the hearth stone,
Where she lulls the babe to sleep."

"Aye," he answered, "said I truly
Of the scene beside the rill,
Thou hadst all its varied beauties,
Ah, beloved, thou hast them still!
But not yet, not yet, oh, darling,
To thy homestead may we go,"
Then he kissed the lips and forehead
That his genius worshipped so."

"I would have my name, thy beauty,
Known through ages yet to be;
But another summer's glory,
All shall smile, sweet bride, for thee,"
And again he plied the pencil,
While the lady sat and dreamed,
Of her dear home and her kindred,
Till all doubly dear they seemed.

Passed away the rosy summer—
Came the autumn's soft eclipse,
When before the finished picture,
With "Eureka" on his lips,
Knelt the artist, all his spirit
Filled with rapture most divine,
"See," he cried, "the world shall worship,
Loved one, at thy beauty's shrine."

But despair has followed rapture,
For he sees the last faint ray,
Of the life that he had stolen
For his picture, died away;—
Gone the lustre from her tresses,
And the life-light from her eye,
While her faded lips but tremble
To the spirits latest sigh.

Feels he then, the selfish artist,
That he slew may see his name
Shining with a star-like lustre,
In the holy heaven of Fame.
Pale and cold, the lady lieth,
Twilight deepens, he is lone,
And his spirit's wing is broken,
And his earthly labor done.

As the peasants, on the morrow,
Found the painter and his bride,
Silent, in the sleep eternal,
So they laid them, side by side,
While the village bells were tolling,
Gently in the church-yard's clay,
But the great world did not mourn for
Genius, beauty, passed away.

This, the legend of a picture,
Oval-framed, and curtained round,
In the dimly-lighted chamber
Of a ruined castle found.
Whose the master hand that traced it
Never, never, shall be known,
Moonlight, that enhances beauty,
Is the romance o'er it throws.

Select Miscellany.

REASONING OF A NEWFOUNDLAND DOG.—Extraordinary as the following anecdote may appear to some persons it is strictly true, and shows the sense, and I am strongly inclined to add, reason of the Newfoundland dog: A friend of mine, while shooting wild fowl with his brother, was attended by a sagacious dog of this breed. In getting near some reeds by the side of a river, they threw down their hats, and crept to the edge of the water, when they fired at some birds. They soon afterwards sent a dog to bring their hats, one of which was smaller than the other. After several attempts to bring them both together in his mouth, the dog at last placed the smaller hat in the larger one, pressed it down with his foot, and thus was able to bring them both at the same time. —Jesse's Anecdotes of dogs.

A TALE OF ODD-FELLOWSHIP.

A lodge of Odd Fellows in an interior village, determining to have their hall renovated and cleaned up, employed an Irish woman rejoicing in the name of Biddy Kelly to do the job. The Guardian of the Lodge, who had the supervision of the work, knowing the inquisitive character of Mrs. K., procured a billy goat and placed him in a closet, which is kept as a reservoir for the "secret things," and when Mrs. Kelly presented herself with her brooms, brushes, tubs, and the usual paraphernial of house-cleaning, she found the Guardian in waiting to instruct her in the duties she was to perform.

"Now, madam," said he, "I will tell you what we want done, and how we came to employ you. The brothers said it would be difficult to get any body to do the job, and not be meddling with the secrets in that little closet; we have lost the key and cannot find it to lock the door. I assure them, however, that you could be depended upon."

"Depinded upon," said she, "I guess I can; my poor dead and gone husband, who belonged to the Free Masons, or the Anti-Masons, I don't know which, used to tell me all the secrets of the consarns, and then he showed me the marks of the gridiron made when he was initiated, and I never told a living soul to this day; if nobody troubles your closet to find your secrets till I do, they'll lay there till they rot—they will."

"I thought so," said the Guardian, "and I want you to commence in the corner, and give the whole room a decent cleaning and as I have pledged my word and honor for your fidelity to promise, now don't go to that closet;" and then he left the woman to herself.

No sooner had she heard the sound of his feet on the last step of the stairway than she exclaimed, "Don't go to the closet! why what on earth can there be in that closet! I'll warrant, there is a big gridiron, or some nonsense just like the Anti-Masons for all the world, I'll be bound I will just take one peep, and nobody will be any wiser, as I can keep it to myself."

Suiting the action to the word, she stepped softly to the forbidden closet, and turned the button; no sooner was the door opened, than "Bah-ah-ah!" went the billy goat, with a spring to regain his liberty, which came near upsetting her ladyship. Both started for the door, but it was filled with the implements of house-cleaning; all were swept clear from their position down to the bottom of the stairs. The noise and confusion occasioned by such an unwonted disturbance, drew half the town to witness Mrs. Kelly's efforts to get from under the goat and pile of pails, tubs, brushes, and brooms in the street. Who should be the first on the spot but the waggish Guardian, who after releasing the goat, which was a cripple for life, and uplifting the other rubbish that bound the good woman to the earth, anxiously inquired if she had been taking the degrees.

"Taking the degrees?" exclaimed Biddy; "If you call tumbling from the top to the bottom of the stairs, with the devil jumping on yes, taking things by degrees, I has thim; and if yes frighten folks as yes has me, and hurt 'em to boot, faix, I'll warrant they'll make as much noise as I did."

"I hope you did not open the closet, madam?" said the door-keeper.

"Open the closet? Eve ate the apple she was forbidden! If you want a woman to do anything, tell her not to do it, and she'll do it sure. I could not stand the temptation. The secret was there—I wanted to know it; I opened the door, and out popped the tarnal critter, right in my face. I thought the devil had me, and I broke for the stairs with the devil butting me every jump. I fell over the tub, and got down stairs as you found us, all in a heap."

"But, madam," said her tormentor, "you are in possession of the great secrets of the Order, and must go up and be initiated sworn, and ride the goat in the regular way."

"Regular way?" exclaimed Mrs. Kelly, "and do you suppose I am going near that tarnal place again, and ride that critter without a bridle or lady's saddle? No, never! I don't want anything to do with the man that rides it. I'd look nice, perched on a billy goat, if it was a goat, wouldn't I? No, never! I'll never go nigh it again, or your hall nother; if I can prevent it, no lady shall ever join the Odd Fellows. Why, I'd sooner be a Free Mason, and be broiled on a gridiron as long as fire could be kept under it, and pulled from cellar to garret, with a halter, in a pair of old breeches and slippers, just as my poor dead and gone husband used to tell me they served him, and he lived over it too, but I never could live over such another ride as I took to-day."

It is needless to add that Mrs. Kelly could not be induced to finish her job, and another woman, less overcome with fear and terror, was selected to perform the duties she had repudiated.

☞ "Don't get above your business," as the lady said to the shoemaker who was measuring her ankle, in order to ascertain the size of her foot.

A False Alarm.

A Washington paper gives the following account of a domestic "what-d'ye-call it" which occurred in that city the other day: The old proverb is, that "it never rains but it pours." The killing of Key seems to have crazed the silly pates of several very romantic married women in this metropolis. A few days after the Sickles tragedy, a married lady living in the southern part of the city, or what is known as the island, informed her liege lord that she had been grossly insulted, the previous evening by Mr. B——, an acquaintance of the family. The incensed and outraged husband, with revolver in hand, rushed to the office of the supposed offender and demanded satisfaction.

"Satisfaction for what?" asked the astonished Mr. B.

"For having insulted my wife, sir, last evening," responded the excited individual.

"Pray, sir, who dares charge me with ever having insulted your wife, by look, word, or action!" again inquired Mr. B.

"The lady, herself, sir, makes the charge," promptly rejoined the husband.

"With your permission, sir, I would be pleased to face my accuser, and hear her make the charge in my presence," mildly remarked the imperturbable Mr. B.

"You shall be gratified, sir; come, walk with me," added the still exasperated husband, at the same time returning his six-shooter to his pocket.

But before giving the closing scene, it may be well to inform the reador of the facts. On the evening previous, Mr. B. had casually called at the house of a friend, and there found the lady in question, without an escort. At a late hour she prepared to return home, and Mr. B—— kindly tendered his services to see her safe to her door. The streets on the island are not highly improved, and on the night in question was very muddy. At one point the walk was quite intercepted by a mud-hole, over which the lady and gentleman were compelled to pass. A knight of old would probably have thrown down his mantle, over which the fair lady might have walked; but our hero having no such appendage, proposed a spring, by which his companion, with the assistance of his hand, cleared the mud at a single bound.

Without further annoyance, they reached the lady's residence in safety.

The excited husband now ushered Mr. B—— into his parlor, and rang for his insulted wife who promptly reported herself. Mr. B——, looking the lady full in the face, asked:

"Madam, have I ever, by word look, or deed, offered you the slightest indignity or insult in my life?"

A breathless pause followed. The lady, after some hesitation, falteringly answered:

"I thought you squeezed my hand slightly, in helping me over the mud-hole, last night."

The revolver dropped, and after due apology to Mr. B——, the mortified husband turned to his romantic spouse and administered a rebuke, to avoid the witnessing of which Mr. B—— hastily left the house and returned to his office, ruminating on the character of female women, with the sage conclusion, that at the present age of the world, it was not entirely "safe to beau other men's wives."

TARRED AND FEATHERED.—In 1852, when the Whig Convention was in session, first came news that General Scott, who was supposed to be a little proud of display, particularly in plumage, was nominated for the presidency. Then came the news that William A. Graham, of North Carolina, the land of tar, pitch and turpentine, was nominated to the vice-presidency. When this latter piece of inteligence was conveyed to Mr. Webster, he was engaged shaving himself. He stopped, and having heard the news, remarked, in his slow, emphatic manner, as he diliberately wiped his razor: "Well, I do not see, then, but that the Whig party have completely tarred and feathered themselves."

POLITICAL POLICE.—A Columbus paper gives an account of the drilling of the political police of that city in this fashion:

"Attention, police! Eyes right—mouths open—draw lager—elevate lager—empty lager—mouths shut—forward to next saloon—advance to voters—electioneer voters—treat voters—drink lager—some more lager."

☞ It is in the power of every man to preserve his probity; but no man living has it in his power to say that he can preserve his reputation, while there are so many evil tongues in the world, ready to blast the fairest character, and so many open ears ready to receive their reports.

☞ A young lady who lately gave an order to a milliner for a bonnet said, "You are to make it plain, but at the same time smart, as I sit in a conspicuous place in church."

☞ A young woman ought, like an angel, to pardon the faults she cannot comprehend; and an elderly woman like a saint, because she has endured trials.

SELF-RULING ENVELOPES.—We have seen specimens of a new self-ruling envelope about to be introduced in the market by G. F. Nesbit of this city, the Government contractor for the supply of stamped envelopes. The improvement consists in the combination of the black lines with the under wing of the envelope; in such a way as to be concealed from observation by the side wings, except when the face and back are pressed together to receive the superscription.—When the letter is exposed, the lines become invisible. Hitherto this result has been attained, when desirable, by the clumsy operation of inserting in the envelope the black lines on a separate piece of paper, and of withdrawing them when the letter was addressed, or of using the ruler and pencil on the outside, and afterwards erasing the impression with india-rubber. When we consider that several hundred million letters are written annually in the United States by persons accustomed to writing on ruled paper, very many of whom experience difficulty in even addressing a letter satisfactorily, without often spoiling two or three envelopes in the operation, the economy of time, labor and money by this little improvement is apparent. It will obviate a common objection to the stamped envelopes. —New York Tribune.

SERVANT GAL-ISM.—Upper Ten dom is completely eclipsed by the under crust of female society, in the style and breadth of fashionable dressing—as the following confidential epistle, from a city servant to a country help, demonstrates:

KERLAMBUS, Aphrile 1, 1859.

DEBE HANNY.—As fur to nex, the loer it is the more fasinable u be, and the less close u ware, the more u be dressed. SINGULAR DEATH.—The Baltimore Sun says, a young female named Mary Ellen Hoofnagle, whose parents reside at No. 18 Armistead lane, near Light street, attended the execution of the four murderers in that city on Friday, the 8th inst., and witnessed the spectacle from outside the jail walls. She returned home, and the same evening, while assembled with the family, commenced acting strangely, and saying "she knew she was to be hung on Friday." She would partake of no food nor medicine, nor could any be forced upon her. This continued for a few days, when it was clear that she was sinking into the grave. Frequently she expressed great gratification at the thought of her dying, as she hoped by that to escape hanging. She contined in this state of mind, gradually growing weaker, until yesterday morning, when she died.

☞ Two men recently contrived to saw their way out of the Little Rock, Ark. jail, but before they left held a meeting, and adopted resolutions, denouncing Know-Nothingism; indorsing the foreign and domestic policy of the "present Administration," and expressing their "unabated confidence in the wisdom, patriotism and integrity of our present Chief Magistrate." The resolutions were carried unanimously, and a copy left with a request that they be published in the Little Rock papers. The meeting then adjourned sine die, and went to sawing.

THE HUNTER'S TRAIL.—A Texas correspondent of the Scientific American says:—The trail which hunters and Indians follow skillfully is not so much composed of tracks or foot-prints as of indescribable little signs, such as leaves and blades of grass bent or turned. Twigs broken, and other things so small and faint that they cannot be shown to any one, yet which, when all put together, make a kind of line along the ground, which line can be seen by a rapid, glancing look, but which will disappear when looked at steadily.

SCARCITY OF FOOD IN INDIANA.—The Evansville (Ind.) Enquirer says there is quite a scarcity of grain and provisions in several counties of that State. Horses, cattle, sheep and hogs are lying dead in the fence corners of almost every farm, and are daily dying of famine.—The people, also, are suffering, especially in Clay county, where many people are glad to furnish cordwood cut and pile it for forty cents a cord, take pay in provisions or grain, to enable them to live until next season.

THE MEANEST YET.—A charitable individual in the neighborhood of Williamantic, Conn., proposed to raise a subscription for a poor, hard working man, who recently lost a valuable cow. Every one applauded the object and its originator—money was raised—poor man expected to be made happy, when his benevolent friend produced an old bill against him to just the amount raised, and retained the cash!

☞ An Expressman in California was chased by eight wolves on the 20th of January; he dropped his letter bag, ran to a pine stump, and set it on fire, the wolves tore up the mail bag, eat the expressman's dinner, and then being frightened by the blaze of the pine wood, ran away. This is taking the stump to some advantage.

☞ Wm. B. Astor, of New York, who is worth six millions of dollars, recently requested Rev. Mr. Chapin's society not to anticipate the payment of a debt of $90,000 due him, as they desired to do, but to continue paying only the interest as it became due. He said he had more money than he could take care of.

☞ It was stated by a leading dentist of Chicago in a recent address to his brethren, that the amount of gold plate and leaf used in the United States for the replacing and repair of defective teeth was $2,250,000.

☞ The water that flows from a spring does not congeal in winter. And those sentiments of friendship which flow from the heart cannot be frozen in adversity.

☞ The hoop question, like most others, has two sides to it.—Exchange Paper.

The ladies take the inside, of course.

ALTOONA, PA.

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1859.

☞ Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons. It is therefore useless for all such to send us advertisements offering to pay at the end of three or six months. Where advertisements are accompanied with the money, whether one, two or ten dollars, we will give the advertiser the full benefit of cash rates.

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO.,

Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and 10 State street, Boston, are the Agents for the Altoona Tribune, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

☞ The Anti-Lecompton, Anti-Buchanan, Forney Democratic State Central Committe is in session at the Logan House in this place, at the time we go to press. What conclusions it may come to in reference to calling a convention to nominate another State ticket, we cannot say, but if we may judge from conversation outside, we think a motion to that effect would be negatived. There is quite a full attendance of the members of the committee, and a number of outsiders.

How it is in Utah.

Gov. Cummings was sent to Utah some time since, to bring the inhabitants of that territory into subjection to the U. S. government. How far he has succeded in accomplishing the object of his mission will shortly appear. Ere he had long been there, it was reported that he had formed a truce with Brigham Young, who claimed to be the temporal as well as spiritual ruler of the deluded, lecherous and vicious inhabitants of that country, which would prove highly beneficial to old Uncle Samuel. At the time this report was circulated, we predicted that the truce would prove a farce, that there was no confidence to be placed in Brigham or his followers, and our predictions are now being verified.—Late advices, public and private, from that territory inform us that the treaty is a mere mockery, and that a fair trial in courts of justice, when a Mormon is defendant, can not be had. So apparent has this fact become, that Judge Cradlebaugh found it necessary, on a recent occasion, to discharge the Grand Jury, because they not only refused to find any bills, but employed every means in their power to screen a party who was accused of murder. A seceder from Mormonism is hunted out by a body of ruffians called the "Danites," who have authority from their leaders to put all seceders to death, if necessary; and all this is done in the name of religion, for the good of the Mormon Church. Should the murderers be arrested, the jury will refuse to convict, no matter how conclusive the evidence of their guilt. Brigham Young and his colleagues exercise more influence than the United States authorities, and the result is that courts are a humbug, in no way subserving the ends of public justice.

The latest and most important intelligence, which was not unexpected by many, is that there has been a rupture between Gov. Cummings and Gen. Johnston, and that the former has taken sides with the Mormons against the latter, thereby deepening the animosity between the Mormons and the U. S. soldiers, and the report of a renewal of hostilities may be looked for. The Mormons have only been tampering with those sent to rule them in order to gain time to complete their villainous schemes, and it is time that they should be more summarily dealt with. Let them be either effectually subdued of completely wiped out of existence, as it is worse than useless to attempt to bring them into subjection by peaceful overtures. The sooner this arbitrary course, which appears to be the only one left to the U. S. government, is pursued, the better for the country, pecuniarily and morally.

SOMETHING OF A WRECK.—An exchange states that a locomotive on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad blew up, a few days since, while standing on a side track, at Bucyrus, Ohio. The men in charge of it had left but but a few minutes before to go to dinner. It was rendered a complete wreck. The ball it is said to have landed up town, near the residence of the former President of the Company. Part of the engine was thrown upon the top of the Court House and came near playing the dence with the records. Up to the date at which the account was written, the top of the house of the engine had not been seen or heard of.

FRIGHTFUL CATASTROPHE.—A catastrophe of a most appalling nature occurred on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, near Greensburg station, on Monday morning last. It appears that the ballast train was in service as usual, and that while on its way east, and within a short distance of Greensburg, the locomotive exploded with a tremendous report, killing three men and shattering the locomotive to pieces. John Dodds, the Engineer, Mr. Woods, the Conductor, were killed instantly, and Joseph Speelman, the Fireman, was injured to such an extent that he died in a few minutes. So great was the force of the explosion that the boiler of the locomotive was thrown near two hundred feet from the spot where it took place. The exact cause of the explosion is not known, but is attributed to negligence on the part of the engineer.

☞ The war spirit in Europe appears to be rising. Letters from Paris and Vienna, speak of war as of a certainty.—France and Russia have united and determined on the humiliation of Austria, which can only be effected by war. The armies of these countries are all ready for action. It is not at all probable that the diplomatists who are now endeavoring to patch up matters between the belligerent countries will be successful. We expect more definite information ere long.

DECLINES.—The Centre Democrat states, upon the the authority of Col. Gregg, that he will not be a candidate for Auditor General, and gives as a reason that he cannot be spared from his seat in the Senate, which he holds for two more sessions. All right; the Col. is a good Senator, and we should like to see him have a seat there all the time, provided as good men could be found to fill the outside offices.

☞ It is understood that the Penn'a Rail Road Company have abandoned the idea of re-building the bridge across the Susquehanna, at Clark's Ferry, for the present, but intend erecting a rope ferry, and for the purpose are putting an old locomotive in condition to be stationed on Duncan's Island to operate the machinery.

ANOTHER RECOMMENDATION.—The Tyrone Star, of last week, takes the following notice of the removal of Dr. J. M. Gemmill to this place:

"We learn that Dr. J. M. Gemmill our old friend and Physician, of Alexandria, has removed from there to Altoona, and associated himself with Dr. D. R. Good. Whilst the citizens of Altoona are loosing a very excellent, worthy man and Physician in the person of Dr. C. J. Hirst, who is going to the West, we congratulate them in getting Dr. Gemmill to take his place; as a Gentleman and Physician, his reputation requires no statement at our hands, to any who have known him. But to those who may be citizens of Altoona and vicinity, and who are strangers to the eminent qualifications of Dr. Gemmill, we can confidently recommend the Dr.; having been our Physician in some very difficult cases, we believe his science and skill is equal to any Physician in Central Pennsylvania. The Dr. has always used his influence for the advancement and elevation of the medical profession, and but few practitioners have kept pace more closely with the progress of medical science by careful reading and study of foreign and American medical works.

A GOOD LAW.—The Legislature, at its last session, enacted a law for the protection of birds, the provisions of which should be extensively known, and when violated, should be rigorously enforced. It is as follows:

"That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person whithin this Commonwealth to shoot, kill, or in any way trap or destroy any blue-bird, swallow, martin, or any other insecticverous bird, at any season of the year, under the penalty of two dollars."

Destroy not the birds:
They're the farmer's best friends;—
For the little they spoil,
They make ample amends.

Some fruit they will eat;
But grudge it them not:
For the good they do
Should not be forgot.

They keep down the insects,
Whose rapid increase
Would injure our harvests
Till harvests would cease.

With their songs they amuse
Our wearisome hours,
And their presence enlivens
The shadiest bowers.

Then forgive their slight faults;
They make ample amends;
And do not forget
They're the farmer's best friends.

DESCRIPTION OF A LOCOMOTIVE.—Elihu Burritt, the learned blacksmith, describes a locomotive in the following style:—

"I love to see one of these huge creatures, with sinews of brass and muscles of iron, strut forth from his smoky stable, and saluting the long train of cars with a dozen sonorous puffs from his iron nostrils, fall back gently into his harness. There he stands champing and foaming upon the iron track, his great heart a furnace of living coals; his lymphatic blood is boiling in his veins; the strength of a thousand horses is nerving his sinews; he pants to be gone. He would "snake" St. Peter's across the desert of Sahara, if he could be fairly hitched to it; but there is a little sober eyed tobacco chewing man in the saddle, who holds him in with one finger, and can take away his breath in a moment, should he grow restive or vicious. I am always deeply interested in this man for, begrimed as he may be with coal, diluted in oil and steam, I regard him as the genius of the whole machinery; as the physical mind of that huge horse."

☞ The six New England States send twelve Senators and twenty-nine members of the House of Representatives to Congress, every one of whom at the next session will be republican in politics.

PEN AND SCISSORS:

☞ It is stated that on his return to New York Mr. Sickles will take immediate steps to procure a divorse.

☞ Senator Seward is making preparations for a visit to Europe. He will be absent until late in the year.

☞ Bulwer says there are many persons who think Sunday is a sponge with which to wipe out the sins of the week.

☞ In Spain the women perfume their hair with sulphur, and soak their black curls in a strong ley to make them red.

☞ An editor down east boasts of having had a controversy with a woman and got the last word! The report lacks confirmation.

☞ Fact—roast beef, serenity of mind, a pretty wife, and cold water baths, will make most any man "healthy, wealthy and wise."

☞ John Campbell, convicted in Philadelphia of robbing an unknown man of nine cents, has been sent to the penitentiary for 8 years.

☞ An editor reading to a friend the title of an article, "If Sickles be a murderer what is Butterworth?" was answered "Thirty cents a pound."

☞ A large number of colored people in Chicago are making preparations to emigrate to Hayti, having accepted an invitation from President Geffrad to locate in that island.

☞ A learned young lady the other evening astonished the company by asking for the "loan of a diminutive, argentiferous, truncated cone, convex on its summit, and semi-perforated with symmetrical indentations." She wanted a thimble,

☞ The Telegraphs in India have many special disturbing influences which the lines of the United States are not subject to. The elephants there use the poles for scratching their sides, and the monkeys curl their tails upon the wires. The lines are down more than half the time.

☞ Hydrophobia.—A writer in the Providence Journal furnishes the following perscription for hydrophobia: "Eat the green shoots of asparagus raw; sleep and perspiration will be induced, and the disease can thus be cured in any stage of canine madness." A man in Athens, Greece, was cured by this remedy after the paroxysms had commenced.

☞ Horrible Accident.—On Monday of last week, a little boy, nearly four years old, living in Providence, R. I., fell into a kettle of boiling water. He was playing around the vessel, while his mother was hanging up clothes; he gave one scream, but his distress was too terrible to allow him to do more. Before his father could reach him he was literally par-boiled from his neck to his feet. He died in a few hours.

☞ A Solemn Death.—At a Baptist meeting, in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, on the occasion of the delivery of a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Fapor, a short time since, Captain John Bilton rose and addressed the congregation in a calm, impressive manner, (as is usual in the church,) closing with the admonition, "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh," when he sat down, and instantly fell from his seat,—a corpse!

☞ Horrid.—At Columbus, Ohio, last week, a lunatic, whose insanity was of a wild type, killed a comrade who roomed with him, cut him up into small bits, ornamented them with bits of ribbon and then proceeded to dispose of them to the other occupants of the wards as "Christmas beef." When the terror-stricken keeper entered the room, several lunatics were eating the remains, and the butcher told him with a leer that the next time he killed he should serve him a choice cut.

☞ They have in Boston, two children, who unitedly weigh less than Tom Thumb. The elder of the sisters is eleven years of age, weighs fifteen pounds, and is twenty-eight inches in height: the younger is aged nine, weighs thirteen pounds, and her height is twenty-six inches. They are perfectly formed, and, says the Gazette, one experiences none of the disgust at looking at them that the sight of a dwarf so often inspires for nothing can be imagined more ethereal than these daintily formed and fairy like little creatures.

AN INCIDENT.—One day while Mr. Giddings was addressing the House on the subject of slavery, Mr. Dawson, of Louisiana, was observed standing in the aisle behind him, his countenance wearing a threatening aspect, his hand clutching the handle of a Bowie-knife concealed under his coat. As Mr. G. uttered the closing words of his speech, Dawson rushed down the narrow aisle, and, in passing, gave him a sudden and violent push; he then turned around and faced Mr. G. in a defiant attitude, his hand grasping the handle of his Bowie knife. He evidently expected Mr. Giddings would resent the insult by a blow, and no doubt intend, if he had done so, to assassinate him on the spot.—The excitement in the House at this moment was intense. Mr. Giddings, however, was perfectly cool and self possessed. "I suppose," said he to Dawson, "that you attempted to insult me." "I did," replied Dawson, defiantly.—"Then give me leave to say," said Mr. Giddings, with imperturbable coolness, "that you attempted an impossibility. No one but a gentleman can insult me. In the region from which I came we leave such as you to wither under the scorn of the public." Mr. Dawson slunk away, disappointed and chagrined, and never again attempted to overawe the faithful champion of liberty.

PROPER DISPOSITION.—A gentleman of high social consideration in Genoa, recently made the discovery that his wife was unfaithful to him. Waiting his opportunity, he found the guilty pair together, and politely showed the way to the street door, which he closed after them. He then sent a servant for an undertaker, ordered the arrangements of a funeral, sent out cards of invitation to his friends, and over the empty coffin performed the ceremony for a departed wife. This over, he deliverd the light burden to the hearse, and, once more addressing his assembled friends, called for their congratulations upon the fact that he was now a widower—upon which, opening the folding doors, he introduced them to a splendidly prepared feast. The gaieties which thus introduced his happy return to "single life" were prolonged till morning.

GONE BACK TO HER NIGGER.—Miss Judson, whose elopement from Pontiac with the nigger Joe, some time since, caused considerable talk, is in Canada living with him, having again deserted her home and friends. On the occasion of her former elopement her father and brother reclaimed her with great difficulty and took her to Indiana where a divorce was obtained. She went home with them and remained until last week, when she again left, with or without the consent of her parents, and came to Detroit.—Crossing the river she found Joe; they are now living in the enjoyment of connubial happiness, Joe having sold horse and cart and bought some furniture with the proceeds.—Detroit Free Press.

THREE THINGS THAT CAN'T BE DONE.—The Louisville Journal, after a calm survey of the whole matter, arrives at the conclusion that there are just three things that can't be "did." They are as follows:

No man will ever be convicted in the North of aiding the escape of fugitive slaves; no one will ever be convicted in the South of participating in the slave trade or lynching a suspected free-soiler; and no one will ever be convicted in any section of murdering the seducer of his wife, or sister or daughter.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA,

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, affected with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gon orrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Selfabuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have vowed to devote themselves with renewed zeal to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Selfabuse, and other diseases of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR.—On Saturday evening last, a storm, which had for some time been brewing, burst upon us in all its fury, and threatened for a time to sweep everything before it. To give a lengthy account of the affair would be but to pander to the depraved taste of too many people in this community as well as elsewhere, and would not subserve the ends of either morality or justice, therefore we will notice it as briefly as possible. On Saturday morning last, a man residing in North Ward, we need not give his name as it is well known here, but should be known no further, had an altercation with his wife, growing out of his improper intercourse with a woman who had been staying at his house, in which he drew a revolver and threatened to shoot her. His wife thereupon repaired to the office of Esquire Cherry and made information, and a warrant for his arrest was issued. The report of the transaction soon spread over the town, and in the evening, a number of persons collected about the premises of the person referred to. On finding that the warrant had not been executed by the Constable, they became somewhat excited and demanded a prompt arrest, whereupon the Constable arrested the offender and conveyed him before Esq. Cherry, who consigned him to the "Lock Up" for the night. He was liberated again on the following morning, on bail, and is still in town. What settlement of the affair has been made we do not know, nor does it concern us.

While we condemn the actions of the man whose arrest we have noticed, we cannot forbear commenting upon the conduct of the crowd which followed him to the Squires office and to the "Lock Up," which was disgraceful in the extreme. We doubt not that there were persons in that crowd who reviled and insulted the prisoner who have been guilty of all the crimes laid to his charge, though not probably committed so openly. When a man is in the hands of an officer of the law, he should be exempt from insult and abuse, because he has no power of resentment, and we think it cowardly for any one to be guilty of saying or doing that to a man under arrest which they would be afraid to do were he differently situated. We have no more sympathy for the person alluded to than we would have for any other person guilty of such conduct as is attributed to him, and only allude to this conduct of the crowd because we consider it a disgrace to the town and exceedingly reprehensible.

MARRIED—In Lewistown, Pa., on the 14th ultimo. by Rev. H. Baker, JACOB GOOD, Esq. of this place, to Miss MARY ELLEN PENCE, of the former place.

On the 25th ult., by Rev. J. Steck, Mr. A. ROUSH to Miss SALLIE, daughter of R. B. Taylor, Esq., both of this place.

EXCOMMUNICATED.

At the 67th convocation of Club 459, of the Renowned Society of Bachelors, the following Declaration was enacted and rendered irrevocable:—

To all Whom it may Concern:

Whereas, JACOB GOOD, Esq., and Dr. ROUSH, of the Borough of Altoona, who have in times past been esteemed as worthy and consistent members of the R. S. B., have wilfully violated the great principles of the Society, by committing matrimony, be it known, therefore, that they have been formally excommunicated from all the rights and mysteries, benefits and enjoyments, honors and emoluments, of the R. S. B., in accordance with the laws and ceremonies of the Great National Club, and the same is rendered irrevocable by the edict of the

G. N. C. R. of the G. N. C. of R. S. B.

Altoona, April 27, 1859.

The excommunicated members above named have our heartfelt sympathy in this the hour of their adversity. Why they should thus disregard and trample upon the great fundamental principle of their honorable Society, to which it was thought they were devotedly attached, is more than we can conjecture; but, as has been evidenced in many instances of a similar character, we believe that "a woman was at the bottom of it," in both cases. We commend the excommunicated to the kind care and tender embraces of those into whose arms they have been, by their own acts and the above edict, so unceremoniously thrown. Sic transit Gloria Mundi.

THE FRUIT.—From all that we can learn from persons who have fruit trees in this place and vicinity, we believe that the apples, peaches, pears, cherries and plums have not been injured by the unseasonable weather of last week and the week previous. We hope it may be so, and that there may be no frosts to injure them hereafter. All the fruit trees we see are covered with blossoms, giving evidence of a large crop, if many blossoms are really an indication of fruit. While walking through an apple orchard with a friend, last spring, we remarked to him that he would have a large crop, as his trees were all covered with blossoms. He replied that he anticipated a small crop, and gave as his reason for so thinking, that the blossoms were nearly all white, which bring no fruit.—We had never heard of this before, and therefore paid attention to the matter, and found the sign hold good, as there were not over 20 bushels of apples in the whole orchard. This may not be a new sign to all our readers, and may not hold good in all cases, although it did in the one referred to. Those who have apple orchards might profit by observing it this season. Red blossoms a sign of fruit, white blossoms no fruit.

☞ Many persons do that to others which they would not that others should do unto them. The mechanics of this place were to send to Philadelphia for their dry-goods, groceries, &c., instead of purchasing at home, our merchants would have a just right to complain, and have not our mechanics an equal right to complain of our merchants go to the city to get work done which can be done as well and as cheaply at home. If those of our merchants who do this, were dealt with in like manner, we think their sales would be small, and yet it would be no more than treating them as they have treated others. Those who have been guilty of this violation of the golden rule may take these remarks to themselves, and we hope will consider them well, as it will not be hard to discover the results of their dereliction by mechanics.

IMPORTANT TO STOCKHOLDERS.—At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Altoona Fair View Cemetery Association, held in the Lecture Room of the United Brethren Church, on Monday, April 12th, 1859, the following resolution was offered:—

Resolved, That all Lots Holders who refuse to pay the $3 00 assesment, (which was levied at a Stockholders meeting in September, 1858, for the purpose of paying the last installment due on the purchase of the Cemetery grounds,) previous to the 10th day of May, 1858, will be considered only lot holders and have no voice in the affairs of the Association, election of officers, &c., further than ownership of their lots, and will not be considered Stockholders, or be entitled to any of the benefits arising from the increased value of the grounds or any profits which may appurtain to the same.

Agreeably to an article of the Constitution requiring all amendments thereto to lie over until the next meeting after the one at which they are offered, the above resolution was laid over until the meeting on Monday evening last, at which time it was passed. All those who now hold lots and wish to have a voice in the management of the affairs of the Association should pay up at once.

BATTALION.—Tuesday next will be a stirring day in Altoona. The military of the county, numbering some ten or eleven companies, meet at this place for inspection and battallion drill.—Our ears will be saluted with the notes of the earpiercing fife, the noisy rattle of the Kettle drum, the thunder of the big bass drum, and the lively airs of the Brass Band. Our eyes will behold the "pomp and circumstance of glorious war," as displayed by the nodding plumes and glistening bayonets of our citizen soldiery, and our cake mechants will drive a thriving business in the way of supplying our rural friends, who will of course visit the town on that day, with sections of gingerbread and other nick nacks. "Little Blair" is none of your "one-horse" concerns when it comes to making a military display, as those who visit Altoona on Tuesday next will find. Hurrah for the Battalion, and the Fourth of July!

MEN OF BUSINESS.—Rare almost as great poets are business men—rarer, perhaps, than veritable saints and martyrs, are consummate men of business. Many who think they are expert business men are sadly deceiving themselves, though it is not likely that they can deceive others. Among those who may be called business men, in the true sense of the term, we think all will allow us to class our enterprising citizen and merchant, C. Jaggard. This notice may be considered a puff, but we think that those who take the trouble to consider the improvements which he has made and is now making in our town, and will step into his store and view the beautiful and well selected stock of goods, suited to the season, the place and the times, which he has just opened, will agree with us that he understands the wants of the community and endeavors to meet it, and while he thus benefits others, he benefits himself also. This is the secret of business, as all know, but few can learn it.

REMOVAL.—Dr. Bittner, Surgeon Dentist, has removed his office to a room on the first floor of the Masonic Temple, which he has fitted up in handsome style, causing it to look very inviting, unless you wish a dental operation, in which event we presume the castle of a fairy would have no charms. In reality, the room is neat, and although the feelings which may cause you to visit it may be unpleasant, the Dr., who is an agreeable fellow, will treat you cleverly, and relive your sufferings with as little pain, or supply your wants as promptly and skilfully as any Dentist in the country. We have examined specimens of his work, and consider them the best we have ever seen, being perfect in finish and as to durability there could be none better unless made of cast steel.

PATENT RIFLE.—A few days since our townsman E. H. Turner, Esq., exhibited to us a patent Rifle Gun, of his own invention, which speaks well for his inventive genious and mechanical skill. We will not attempt a description of the gun, knowing that we could not give it satisfactorily, but we may say that it is on the principle of the Minnie Rifle, and is loaded in the same manner. The gun shown us was not entirely finished, consequently we could not judge conclusively as to its merits, but we are of the opinion that, when it receives the additional improvements, which its inventor intends to make upon it, it will meet his expectations, viz:—throw a ball as far as the Minnie Rifle, be as quickly loaded and much more easily kept clean, and cost one-half less. We hope he may be able to bring his patent to perfection.

SPRING LIKE.—The weather, for the last few days, forms a very agreeable contrast to the dismal storms of snow and rain last week. The sun is shining brightly, and the atmosphere is clear and mild without being warm enough to be provocative of spring-fever, unless it be in those who are subject to attacks of it at all seasons. The grass looks fresh and green and the trees will soon be clad in their pleasant spring suits. The effect of the opening of the season has already been felt by our business men and a fresh impetus has been given to building, more of which is now in progress than we had dreamed of in our most ardent hopes for the prosperity of our town. All hail to spring; its magic wand drives discontent and frows from every brow, and places in their stead contentment and a smiling face.

APPOINTED.—We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph of Friday last, that Col. I. J. Crane, formerly Conductor on the Mail Train, on the Pa. R. R., has been appointed Ticket Agent at Harrisburg, in room of Mr. Shoemaker, resigned. It gives us pleasure to record the appointment of Col. Crane to this responsible post, knowing that he is well qualified to discharge its duties in an efficient and gentlemanly manner, although we are sorry to loose his company when we have occasion to take a ride upon the train heretofore under his charge. Mr. Bartow, we believe is to be his successor as Conductor, in whom the travelling public will find an accommodating and agreeable gentleman.

☞ Rev. David M'Kinney, editor of the Presbyterian Banner and Advocate, was in town on Sunday last, and preached, morning and evening, in the Presbyterian Church.

MUSICAL CONCERT.—A Musical Concert will be given in the Presbyterian Church, this (Thursday) evening, by the blind girl, Miss Phebe Locker, at which it is hoped there will be a full turn out, not only to hear the music, but to contribute a mite to aid in the maintainance of the poor. She is not only blind herself, and yet endeavoring in a respectable and virtuous way to maintain herself, but also to keep a blind sister, a sister with weak eyes, and an aged and delicate mother. She comes among us with the highest recommendations as to character, and with strong claims upon our sympathy and beneficence. Come to the Concert—Come all who can. It is expected that the exercises will be varied by some pieces by our Altoona singers, by way of assisting the blind girl.

THE TELEGRAPHER RETURNED.—We stated last week that the proprietor of the "Hall of Fashion," Charley Mann, had telegraphed that he was buying a superior stock of goods in the eastern market and would be on hand with them in "a few days." Well he has returned, and with him came as handsome a stock of goods, for ladies particularly, as any one on the look out for a wedding or party dress could wish to select from. The only difficulty in way of making a selection, would be that there are so many nice pieces she would not know which to choose, because she could not take all. But let not this deter you, ladies; if you can not take all, you will be sure to get one to please you if you take any of them.

BRONCHITIS.—This disease consists in an inflamed condition of the lining membrance of the bronchial tubes, and is generally attended with cough, increased discharge from the throat and tubes, blueness of the lips and coldness of the extremities from want of a proper circulation of the blood. One of the best remedies for its radical cure is DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP, a remedy prepared by that gentleman at his wholesale drug store, No. 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh Pa. and may be had at G. W. Kessler's, Altoona.

CAUSE OF THE GREAT PROSPERITY OF THE IRON CITY COLLEGE.—Owing to the thorough and comprehensive course of instructions pursued in the Iron City College, under teachers who, by their experience and scholarship, enjoy the favor of many of the most distinguished scholars in the country, its present number of student is fully ten times that of any other Commercial College in Pittsburgh, and is now the most popular and successful Commercial School in the United States.

A MISTAKE.—The last number of the Tyrone Star contains a highly complimentary notice of the store of Mr. Ewing, in this place, but we are sorry to say that there is no such gentleman engaged in the mercantile business in the town, that we have been able to find. Most likely the editor had reference to our merchant tailor, Tom Elway, and his typos, not being acquainted with him as they should be, made a mistake in the name.

☞ The Altoona Sabbath School Association will meet in the Lecture Room of the M. E. Church on to-morrow (Friday) evening. It is hoped that there will be a general attendance of the members of the Association and all those who feel an interest in the Sabbath School cause. Addresses will be delivered by Revs. Steck and Creighton.

ANOTHER REMOVAL.—Messrs. Ettinger & Ullman have removed their clothing store to the room formerly occupied by Richard Smith, on Main street, next door to O'Neil's store, where they invite their friends and customers to give them a call.

☞ See advertisement of Dr. Sandford's LIVER INVIGORATOR in another column.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR,

and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one supplying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

MARRIED.

On the 21st ult., in Williamsburg, by the Rev. Thomas Barnhart, Mr. JAMES PATTERSON to Miss REBECCA VINACKE, both of Williamsburg, Blair county Pa.

DIED.

In Tyrone, on the 18th ult., Maggie, daughter of James and Elizabeth Bell, aged 16 months and 4 days.

In Tyrone, on the 27th ult., Anna Mary, daughter of Edward L. and Nancy J. Rose, aged 4 weeks and 3 days.

At the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Sutter, in West Altoona, on the morning of the 17th ultimo, Mr. JOHN GROVE, aged 70 years.

The deceased was among the early settlers of Sinking Valley. He raised a large and respectable family, several of whom now reside in this place. He came here soon after Altoona was commenced; was very industrious, economical, and a highly esteemed citizen. For many years he was nominally a Roman Catholic in religious views. This was probably owing to the result of early associations and matrimonial alliance, than the convictions of his own judgment. During his last illness, which was very long and painful, he renounced Popery entirely. The writer of this was sent for by him soon after his illness commenced, which was more than a year since, to whom he repeatedly and very freely expressed himself on the subject. He died in the full belief of the Protestant faith; of which he expressed his willingness and desire to make a public profession, had the Lord given him health and strength to attend upon the sanctuary. Though he was denied this privilege on earth, he did what was of infinitely more importance, received Christ by a living faith; and has doubtless been admitted to the more exalted privilege of membership in the Church triumphant. A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhœa, or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by

B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 88 East 31st street, New York City.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. For Inflammatory Diseases only.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: Subdues inflammatory disease, whatever or in its form or locality. This it does by equalizing the circulation, thereby removing the sole cause of inflamation.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Headache, Fits, Colds, Fevers, Inflamed Throat, Lungs, and Liver, Female Diseases Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Gout, Scrofula, Canker and all other forms of Inflamation are easily subdued by the New Medical Salt.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT, is NO CURE-ALL, but does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the circulation by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions.

MULTITUDES HAVE TRIED the virtues of the New Medical Salt, though but lately discovered and introduced. Witness the testimonials and certificates of cure.

ALL WHO HAVE USED IT acknowledge a benefit from it.—An acquaintance of ours was cured of a severe case of Neuralgia in less than a week.

YOUR INVALUABLE MEDICINE is nobly fulfilling, in my case, all the promises which you made for it. A few doses also relieved my mother of a rush of blood to the head.

J. P. GILLINGHAM, Phila.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM was my complaint. The first package did the work effectually, as not a vestige of Rheumatism is left. G. H. DUNCAN, New York.

I KNOW IT IS GOOD for Rheumatism, removing it in a few hours. I am now trying it for Scrofula and have already received benefit. S. LESSIG, Reading.

I TRIED IT FOR ANEURISM of the Abdominal Aorta. In ten days the pain was gone.

T. W. FITZIMONS, M. D., Phila.

WE SPEAK BY THE BOOK. We have tried it. It has complete control over inflamation.

BRONCHITIS, CANKER, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia have been cured by it.

MANY MORE WOULD TESTIFY, if necessary. Descriptive Circulars, with testimonials may be obtained from any Druggists who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S Antiphlogistic Salt. Price, One Dollar. Chronic Package, $2.50.

D. C. TAYLOR, & CO.,
Gen. Agents, 202 Dock St. Phila.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT IS FOR SALE in Altoona, by A. Roush; Geo. A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg, and by all enterprising druggists whereever the "Tribune" is read. As it is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of an eminent physician, no one should fail to try the Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions, see circular.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER,

Sole Agent for Blair County.
